Recruitment, induction and training of Directors / Trustees

Members of the management committee are volunteers and do not serve as Directors. Their applications are reviewed by the Board of Directors to ensure their suitability for that role.

The induction process includes attending a board meeting prior to being formally appointed so that potential committee members can gain a better appreciation of what is required. We are currently producing an induction pack which will include a copy of the Cybercafe Mission Statement document, as a registered company limited by guarantee booklets produced by Companies House which explain the role of a Director and as we also a charity some information produced by the Office of the Scottish Charities Regulator.

Role of Volunteers

All the Management Committee Members are volunteers, who fulfil this role to ensure that the Cybercafe is well governed and meets the requirements of the Companies Act. In addition to these requirements, at the monthly board meetings, the management committee review progress of current work and discuss any action required & consider new projects.

We have volunteers who help with fundraising events on an as and when basis, this involves anything from baking to running stalls at local events.

Use it again shop is solely run by volunteers from the local community, mainly consisting of retired ladies

The principle funding sources in the year were the MacTaggart Third Fund, the Iain MacTaggart Trust, The Robertson Trust, Corra Foundation, the National Lottery and JHT Charitable Trust.

In preparing those financial statements, the management committee should follow best practice and :

- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the company will continue on that basis

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS REPORT TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS ON THE UNAUDITED ACCOUNTS OF
MAC TAGGART COMMUNITY CYBERCAFE
(A COMPANY LIMITED BY GUARANTEE)
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST MARCH 2020

I report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 31 March 2021, which are set out on pages 8 to 15

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10 (1) (a) to (c) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Account Regulations. An examination include a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts present with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the account, and seeks explanation from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required for any audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention.

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

To keep accounting records in accordance with Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations and section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act; and

To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
